

Ms Lynda Troy
M.Clin.Psych., MAPS.
CLINICAL NEUROPSYCHOLOGIST
CLINICAL PSYCHOLOGIST

QUALIFICATIONS

- Bachelor of Arts (double major in Psychology)
- Master of Clinical Psychology (Neuropsychology)
- Master of Clinical Psychology

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

- Member Australian Psychological Society
- Member College of Clinical Neuropsychologists, Australian Psychological Society
- Member College of Clinical Psychologists, Australian Psychological Society
- Member Australian Society for the Study of Brain Impairment

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

• Head injury	• Epilepsy
• Concussion	• Neurological disease
• Cerebrovascular problems such as strokes and aneurysms	• Drug and alcohol related brain damage
• Dementia	• Learning disabilities and developmental delays
• Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder	• Intellectual impairment

SUMMARY

Ms Lynda Troy as a Clinical Neuropsychologist has completed specialist postgraduate qualifications and supervision in the branch of science concerned with the relationship between brain function and behaviour. Neuropsychologists assess changes in thinking and behaviour that may arise from any form of brain dysfunction.