
Orthopaedic Surgeon

Dr Richard C Hudson

M.B., B.S. F.R.A.C.S.(Orth), F.A.Orth.A., C.I.M.E., G.E.P.I.

QUALIFICATIONS & FELLOWSHIPS

- ❖ Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery
- ❖ Fellow of the Royal Australasian College of Surgeons
- ❖ Fellow of the Australian Orthopaedic Association
- ❖ Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh
- ❖ Certified Independent Medical Examiner (American Board of Independent Medical Examiners)
- ❖ Accredited Assessor of Permanent Impairment for WorkCover New South Wales
- ❖ Queensland Guidelines for Evaluation of Permanent Impairment, 2nd Edition, training, Core, Spine, Upper Limb and Lower Limb

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

- | | |
|---|---|
| ❖ Paediatric, Adolescent and Juvenile Orthopaedics | ❖ Neck injuries – whiplash and other injuries |
| ❖ Arthritis and Osteoporosis | ❖ Spinal Injuries – ruptured discs, sciatica, low back pain, and scoliosis |
| ❖ Fractures and Dislocations | |
| ❖ Joint Reconstruction and Joint Replacement | ❖ Sporting Injuries |

SUMMARY

Dr Richard C Hudson graduated from the University of Sydney in 1970 and completed his residency at the Royal North Shore Hospital in 1971. Dr Hudson ran a private orthopaedic practice in Manly, New South Wales from 1977 to 2003 and has since been a Staff Specialist at the Lismore Base Hospital.

Dr Hudson's areas of expertise include the spine as well as paediatric orthopaedics.

CURRENT AND PAST POSITIONS

- ❖ Orthopaedic Staff Specialist, Lismore Base Hospital
- ❖ Orthopaedic Staff Specialist, Whangarei, New Zealand
- ❖ Private Orthopaedic Practice, Manly NSW
- ❖ Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon, Mater and Delmar Hospitals
- ❖ Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon, Manly District Hospital
- ❖ Clinical Fellow Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto Canada
- ❖ Registrar
 - Robert Jones & Agnes Hunt Orthopaedic Hospital, Oswestry UK
 - Prince of Wales Hospital, Sydney
 - Royal Newcastle Hospital

MEMBERSHIPS

- ❖ Member of the Australian Orthopaedic Trauma Society
- ❖ Member of the Australian Orthopaedic Medico-Legal Society
- ❖ Member of the Queensland Medico-Legal Society